The Celebration of Worship at Faith Community Lutheran

Before worship, talk to God. During worship, let God talk to you.
After worship, talk to your fellow worshiper.

*Here at Faith Community Lutheran...*we almost always follow the traditional order of worship familiar to most Lutherans, but usually our services are a “blend” of old and new music. As Lutherans, we view ourselves as a church of “Word & Sacrament.” Therefore, “God’s Word” is held in high esteem as we follow the Scripture readings and the sermon with our Bibles open.

FCLC is among a growing number of Lutheran Churches committed to celebrating the Sacrament of Holy Communion every week, including the baptized of all ages. As we begin our worship, all are invited to “examine himself” (1 Corinthians 11:28) during the Confession as we prepare to receive the Word and Holy Communion.

23rd Weekend after Pentecost November 7 & 8, 2009

Welcome, Guests!

We are grateful that you have remembered the Sabbath to keep it holy.

Blessings Come Out of Obedience

Faith. Drought. Obedience. Testing. Famine. Sustenance. Friendship. All of these and more are found in our first lesson today in 1 Kings 17. Elijah announced to King Ahab that “there will be neither dew nor rain in the next few years except at my word.” Bold statement! I wonder if Elijah had thoughts running through his mind as God said this as to what would happen to him during this time. For up until now, it wasn’t until after Elijah made this announcement that God told him where he was to go, and how he would be provided for.

A drought would lead to famine, and famine to death. He was putting himself right in the middle of it. He wasn’t excused from suffering right along with the rest of the population. Eventually the brook dried up, and God told him to go to Zarephath, a town just south of Sidon. Jezebel was the daughter of the king of the Sidonians (1 Kings 16:31). Into the lions’ den so willingly went he.

At the gate of the town, he found the widow. He asked for water. He brought her into conversation with him by asking for bread. He asked her to give all that she had. Elijah gently responds in the way the angels and Jesus did, “Do not be afraid.” In asking her to make a loaf of bread for him, and afterwards, make something for herself and her son. How much more the testing of faith could there be than to give away the “first” of what one has? Notice the similarities between this story and other stories of the stories of the New Testament - the woman at the well, widow’s mite, first fruits, sell all you have.

She did as he instructed. She was blessed. It was not their last meal after all. And the jar of flour and the jug of oil did not run dry.

For the heart grows rich in giving; All its wealth is living gain;
Seeds, which mildew in the garner, Scattered, fill with gold the plain.
Is thy burden hard and heavy? Do thy steps drag wearily?
Help to bear thy brothers’ burden; God will bear both it and thee.”
- Ira D. Sankey (1889)
